International Conference on

Library Space and Content Management for Networked Society

(IC.LISCOM-2014)

Dharmaram Vidya Kshetram, Bangalore

Dharmaram Vidya Kshetram (DVK) proposes to conduct an Annual International Conference on Library Space and Content Management for Networked Society (IC.LISCOM). The first of the series will be held on 18-20 October 2014 in association with Christ University (Bangalore), Indian Library Association (ILA), Liverpool Hope University, Liverpool (UK), and Centre for Civilisational Dialogue University of Malaya (Malaysia). Dharmaram Vidya Kshetram which hosts the programme is a Pontifical Athenaeum for higher learning and formation in Philosophy, Theology, Canon Law, and Formative Spirituality and Counselling. It has a serene campus at the heart of Bangalore City with excellent teaching, learning and research facilities.DVK Central Library is the best of its kind in India.The conference delegates could be accommodated on DVK Campus.

IC.LISCOM is intended to equip the librarians with required knowledge for developing physical facilities and also to build capability for critical and creative use of space in higher education and research libraries. The series of conferences planned will discuss the questions such as the status of physical space in the digital era, role of virtual space, and trends on space management in the networked society, and the significance of the traditional Indian ethos in space management and issues related to digital content management for teaching, learning and research. Along with invited lectures of faculties from India and abroad and thematic presentations and discussions, IC.LISCOM-2014 will take the participants on a tour into the real spaces where innovative ideas on space and content management are experimented successfully.

Conference Dynamics

Along with Paper and Poster Presentations there will be opportunities for interaction with prominent scholars in the field through Keynote Addresses, Plenary Sessions, Panel Discussion and Visit of important libraries in Bangalore.
